

WORLD BOOK DAY

Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day is almost here! We will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 6th March and would like your help to make books come to life. We are inviting children to come dressed up as a character of their choice. Please remember that we do not want this to be an added expense and you are more than welcome to dress children in things they already have. There are many book characters which children could find inspiration for in their very own wardrobes, e.g. Matilda, Miss Honey, any of the children from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Gangsta Granny, Wally of Where's Wally and many more. They are also welcome to bring their favourite story with them to share with their friends. If your child brings in a book to school, please ensure that this is name labelled to avoid any confusion. If the book is one which they have borrowed from a library, a named bag or wallet for it would be brilliant.

We plan to spend the day celebrating reading and having lots of fun with books. Thank you for all of your support.

Children will be receiving their £1 book tokens in the run up to World Book Day. The children are then able to put this token towards a book in our Book Fair! If you would like to take it elsewhere, all you need to do is to take it to your local bookseller. You can find out more about the books on offer and about your local participating stores using this link: <https://www.worldbookday.com/books/>

Simple take your tokens in and swap it for one of the exclusive, new and completely FREE World Book Day books. The World Book Day book tokens are valid from Thursday 27th February - Sunday 29th March 2020. Please take advantage of the opportunity as the books on offer are lovely and there is likely to be at least one which the children will appreciate.

Sincerely,

Mrs Ahmed

You can find magic wherever you look.
Sit back & relax,
all you need
is a book.
